A Note From Fr. Jim Kinney

This past week I and the other priests from our Diocese convened at the beautiful monastery of St. Meinrad in Indiana to learn more about the ongoing synodal process in which the local and universal Church has been engaged for the past several months and will be engaged in, conceivably, for many years- if not centuries- to come.

Quite simply the synodal process envisions you and all the children of God "walking together" under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, scripture and the model of our Blessed Mother while discerning the path on which the Lord is drawing us forth in fulfillment of our destiny as the body of Christ.

Of no small note, Pope Francis has most recently given each and every member of the laity invited to the October 2023 and 2024 Synods in Rome a vote equal to the votes of each bishop attending the Synods. This announcement speaks already to future such innovations in which the Holy Spirit is already active in forming the Church of the present as well as the future for which we all hunger and thirst. I invite you into that process.

Blessings, Fr. Jim
