A Note From Fr. Jim Kinney

During these challenging times, it probably isn't too often that our minds go to thoughts of a heavenly feast with second and even third helpings of petite fours and wine following the most heavenly entrees we could ever eat. This Sunday's gospel, the third in a row featuring the temple precincts and the chief priests and elders, doesn't so much whet our appetite as it challenges us to make sure we are wearing fitting attire if and when we do arrive at the great wedding banquet in heaven.

To do that we also are called to be members of the very best local church we can be, preparing others as well as ourselves to govern our parish via two events that will take place in the coming weeks. On Saturday, November 4th after the 4pm mass, Fr Bob Dueweke will be conducting St. Joseph's very first Synod, paralleling the very synods taking place in Rome at this time. Then on the weekends of October 21/22 and November 11/12, respectively, you will be asked to first nominate and then elect yourselves or other St Joseph parishioners to the Parish Council to serve and consult with your pastor on issues integral to our Parish mission.

In both cases the Holy Spirit will be the main protagonist, prompting each and every one of you through prayer and the Eucharist to find God's will in ways that best serve our Parish mission going forward.

Blessings, Fr. Jim
