A Note From Fr. Jim Kinney

Forming Consciences For Faithful Citizenship

WEEK FOUR: Common Good

The Common Good is "the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily." Human dignity is respected and the common good is fostered only if human rights are protected and basic responsibilities are met. Every human being has a right to life, a right to religious freedom, and a right to have access to those things required for human decency.

Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities—to ourselves, to our families, to the larger society, and to the earth.² The Common Good In short, we should seek "to build that kind of society where it is easier for people to be good.".....
