A Note From Fr. Jim Kinney

A call from God can come anywhere, any time, to anyone. And certainly it happens to you and to me. In this modern era of relatively sudden change of address as well as occupation, we should not be all that surprised by the transformations that graced the vocations of Isaiah, Peter, and Paul- or ours. We should not be taken aback by the sacred crises that often prompted such graced moments in their lives- or in ours.

We acknowledge our sinfulness at the beginning of each mass even as these biblical greats acknowledged their own sinful unworthiness before becoming the pillars of our faith that they are. We are tempted, as were they, to dismiss God's call as some sort of divine mistake but God, of course, makes no such mistakes when his abundant graces are at work within us. Such monumental changes in our lives are meant not only for our edification but for others as well, graced by a God not all that timid about working through such imperfect emissaries of holiness.

As with Peter's journey, ours can give us whiplash as we challenge those God-given graces while alternatively misunderstanding, following, doubting, and denying the ultimate vocation that a loving and merciful Lord has uniquely in store for each of us. Whatever obstacles we may have to overcome- such as disapproval by spouses, family and friends- they are no match for the power of grace within us.

Blessings, Fr. Jim

Have you enjoyed the Advent Little Blue Books and Lent Black books? Are you looking for a way to deepen your understanding and love of the Eucharist? We now have Little Tan Books on the Eucharist

Learn about the good men of the early Church and the not so good men who came to be great leaders through their faith in the Lord. Join us as we explore the writings of the Early Church Fathers, the first Saturday each month at 2 pm in the Blue Room. We will be delving into the declared dogmas of the Catholic Faith, and their basis in the earliest days of Christianity. Contact Maynard Reinhardt for information.

We are in need of 2025 Mass Intentions. Please call the office to schedule a Mass for your loved ones.

Pope Paul VI said, "The Mass is the most perfect form of prayer!" It has immense power and countless miracles and conversions have occurred throughout the centuries by offering Masses for a specific intention or person. Mass intentions are a great treasure of the Church and have a spiritual weight that is incalculable.

We have an Auto Withdrawal system for your Offertory Donations...the Donate button located on our website at www.stjosephwinchester.com and click on the Donate button and follow the prompts for Online giving, this is PCI Compliant. Thank you for your support.
