A Note From Fr. Jim Kinney

Two weeks ago we celebrated Pentecost, remembering that God remains with us in the gift of the Holy Spirit. This week, we remember another way in which God remains with us—in the Eucharist, where Jesus's very body and blood are really present. In the gospel chosen for this feast we have a moment from earlier in Jesus life which foreshadows the Eucharist. In it, Jesus follows the same "take, bless, break and give" pattern that he will follow at the Last Supper and that we will continue to follow at every mass.

In this pattern all those present find their fill, and God's superabundance assures there is much more food than what the gathered people needed. In the second reading, Paul recalls Jesus words at the Last Supper. We repeat these words at every mass, remembering Jesus even as he continues to be present to us.

The first reading makes another connection; Melchizedek offers bread and wine as he blesses Abram. Through all the readings, God feeds and nourishes God's people, providing for their needs and also providing abundantly, above and beyond what they could need.

Blessings, Fr. Jim

LAUDATO SI: May we have an ever-deepening trust in the faithful presence and loving work of God in us, among us, and through us. Please remember those deprived of their human needs, and their human rights: that they may be given the dignity which God confers on all his people.

Daily Mass and Adoration are back in the renovated chapel for the Summer!!!!

"The love of God and neighbor, the greatest commandment, is expressed in and is the fruit of, Eucharistic Adoration."

+++St John Paul II

Join us for Adoration Fridays 9am-5pm in the Chapel.

We are in need of 2025 Mass Intentions for the End of the Year. Offering a Catholic Mass for loved ones is important because: *We believe in the power of intercession. *Masses can be said for the living and the dead. *Saying a Mass is a source of many fruits and graces. *It is an act of charity for a bereaved family. Please call the office to schedule a Mass for your loved ones.

Join our text messaging system...Flocknotes is our way of communicating information to parishioners. Texting rates may apply. Are you good at praying for others? We have an online prayer group. Call the office if you would like to be added to either of these Flocknote texting lists.
