A Note From Fr. Jim Kinney

Faith rooted in experience is at the heart of our faith. First there was Abraham, our father in faith. Abraham trusted God and left his home in obedience. He began to receive what was promised, the realization of what he hoped for. Generations later Abraham's descendants, the Israelites, knew how God provided for Abraham, trusted in God and had the courage to wait to see his justice.

Christ's disciples, even though the land promised to them was under Roman occupation, had the privilege of seeing and knowing the Messiah, fully realizing what generations had hoped for. Jesus assured them that they could be confident in God's desire to fulfill his promises to them- "Do not be afraid little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom." As God provided for Abraham, the Israelites, and the disciples, we can trust him to provide for us. We can be like vigilant servants, ever ready for the realization of what we hope for.

Today's gospel comes to us in the middle of Ordinary Time, but it is strongly reminiscent of the Advent season. The enjoinders to remain vigilant and prepared echo the readings we hear in December. It is timely in a sense, as this long stretch of Ordinary Time is one where we might be tempted toward passivity. But it is a time meant for growth, engagement and attentiveness. Let us commit to the alertness of Advent, the gratitude of Christmas, the repentance of Lent and the joy of Easter.

Blessings, Fr. Jim

Saint of the Day: St. Pius X, Pope August 21
 Son of Giambattista Sarto, a cobbler, and Margherita Sanson, living in poverty as one of eight children. Baptized in 1835. Confirmed in 1848. He early felt a calling to the priesthood. Studied at the seminary of Pauda, Italy, and was an exceptional student. Ordained by Blessed Giovanni Antonio Farina in 1858. Chaplain at Tombolo from 1858-67. Arch priest of Salzano from 1867-75. Canon of the Treviso cathedral chapter in 1875. Rector of the Treviso seminary and spiritual director for 9 years. Primicerius of the cathedral in 1879. Chancellor of diocese of Treviso. Vicar capitular from December 1879-80. Bishop of Mantua, Italy November 1884. Assistant at the Pontifical Throne 19 June 1891. Cardinal-priest of Saint Bernardo alle Terme June 1893. Patriarch of Venice June 1893. Chosen 257th pope in 1903, taking the name Pius X. Issued decrees on early Communion (age 7 instead of 12/14). Destroyed the last vestiges of Jansenism by advocating frequent and even daily Communion. Reformed the liturgy, promoted clear and simple homilies, and brought Gregorian chant back to services. Revised the Breviary, and teaching of the Catechism. Fought Modernism, which he denounced as "the summation of all heresies". Reorganized the Roman curia, and the other administrative elements of the Church. Worked against the modern antagonism of the state against the Church. Initiated the codification of canon law. Promoting Bible reading by all the faithful. Supported foreign missions. His will read: "I was born poor; I lived poor; I wish to die poor."

Meditation: God Is Near, Trustworthy, and Good

What if Martha paused to breathe a prayer of gratitude, so that the sound escaping from her lips in that moment of pause had been a contented sigh rather than agitation? What if she was filled with grace and with the presence of Jesus? This is what Jesus desires to invite us into: a contentment that is not dependent on who we are but on who he is. Contentment is a theme throughout the Bible. St. Paul professed, "I have learned to be content with whatever I have." Like him, we are called to be satisfied knowing that God is near, that he is trustworthy and good. —from St. Anthony Messenger's "Martha and Mary: Jesus Loves Them Both" by Colleen C. Mitchell

Pause and Pray: Your Faith Has Made You Well Reflect:

Physicians and scientists speak about the "faith factor" in health or illness. Authentic faith can be a tipping point in the well-being of our cells and souls. Pray: Healing God, help me to trust your love in troubled times. I do not ask for a supernatural rescue operation. I ask for the courage to trust and have faith in Your loving power, already present in my cells and soul. Help me to reach out to you and claim your energy of love That will change my life and change the world. Amen. Act: God is always here to help us. Recognizing that we can't do it alone, help me to trust God's power of love in my life. Let me reach out to Jesus, and do all that is my power, in response, to promote my well-being and the well-being of those around me.

Información de comunidad Español

La fe arraigada en la experiencia está en el corazón de nuestra fe. Primero estaba Abraham, nuestro Padre en fe. Abraham confiaba en Dios y dejó su hogar en obediencia. Comenzó a recibir lo que se prometió, la realización de lo que esperaba. Las generaciones más tarde los descendientes de Abraham, los israelitas, sabían cómo Dios proporcionaba a Abraham, confiaba en Dios y tenía el coraje de esperar para ver su justicia.

Los discípulos de Cristo, a pesar de que la tierra les prometió estaba bajo ocupación romana, tuvieron el privilegio de ver y conocer al Mesías, al darse cuenta de lo que las generaciones esperaban. Jesús les aseguró que podrían tener confianza en el deseo de Dios de cumplir sus promesas a ellos: "No tengas miedo de la pequeña rebaño, porque tu Padre se complace en darte el reino". Como Dios proporcionó a Abraham, los israelitas y los discípulos, podemos confiar en él para que nos mantenga. Podemos ser como sirvientes vigilantes, siempre listos para la realización de lo que esperamos.

El Evangelio de hoy nos llega en medio del tiempo ordinario, pero recuerda fuertemente a la temporada de adviento. Los encierros para permanecer vigilantes y preparados hacen eco de las lecturas que escuchamos en diciembre. Es oportuno en cierto sentido, ya que este largo tramo de tiempo ordinario es uno en el que podríamos vernos tentados hacia la pasividad. Pero es un momento destinado al crecimiento, compromiso y atención. Comprometemos con el Alerta del advenimiento, la gratitud de la Navidad, el arrepentimiento de la Cuaresma y la alegría de la Pascua. Paz, Padre Jim.

Laudato Si: Ore para que podamos fortalecerse en la esperanza y activos en los esfuerzos para sanar y renovar la tierra y para todos los que sean olvidados o tirados, y especialmente para los pobres, los enfermos y los ancianos: que Dios podría cambiar nuestros corazones y movernos para amarlos como la imagen de Cristo;

¡Las misas diaria y la adoración están de vuelta en la capilla renovada para el verano! "Una hora santa ayuda a la del mundo en la mayor necesidad de la misericordia de Dios". + San Juan Pablo II Únase a nosotros para la adoración los viernes de 9 am a 5 pm en la capilla

Educación religiosa 2025 2026 La inscripción se llevará a cabo después de la misa el domingo 17 de agosto. Abierto a todos los niños parroquiales en los grados 1-7 que no asisten a una escuela católica y niños parroquiales que asisten a la Academia de San Agatha en segundo grado. Los niños de edad sacramental deben haber asistido a clases de años anteriores. Se necesitan maestros.
