ONE IN CHRIST 2025 DIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL

Please join us in prayer and gifts of support for those who call upon us throughout our diocese.

Why do we have a Diocesan Annual Appeal? As a designated Mission Diocese, the Diocese and our parishes raise money each year to provide for those we serve through missions and ministry throughout our 50-county geographic area. We walk alongside our brothers and sisters in mutual support and ask you to join us. All funds given to the Diocesan Annual Appeal are crucial to provide support for:
 *Charitable outreach in the forms of food, clothing, counseling and emergency assistance in Eastern and Central Kentucky
 *Formation of a new generation of priests and permanent deacons
 *Sustaining parishes including parishes with missions in remote parts of the diocese
 *Educating students in our Catholic schools Programs and ministries shepherded by the Chancery office that are beyond the resources of any one individual parish.

Why can't some parishes support themselves? Our diocese encompasses 16,423 square miles with 59 parishes. Almost 40 of those parishes cannot pay for their operational and salary expenses from their offertory collections and fundraisers alone. Many of our parishes are in rural counties where less than 1% of the population are Catholic. While Catholics are low in number in these areas, the church is known as a source of comfort and support for all who are in need. We are called to thrive in all our parishes through evangelization and our service of others. The Diocese is committed to maintain an active and highly visible Catholic presence in these counties by walking alongside our sister parishes and missions that need support to serve their local communities. We can transform lives through our Catholic faith with your help. Covid-19, along with flooding in eastern Kentucky means your support is needed now more than ever. Consider participating the 2025 Diocesan Annual Appeal.

Saint of the Day: St. Vincent de Paul
September 27 Born to a peasant family. A highly intelligent youth, Vincent spent four years with the Franciscan friars at Acq, France getting an education. Tutor to children of a gentlemen in Acq. He began divinity studies in 1596 at the University of Toulouse. Ordained at age 20. Taken captive by Turkish pirates to Tunis, and sold into slavery. Freed in 1607 when he converted one of his owners to Christianity. Returning to France, he served as a parish priest near Paris where he started organizations to help the poor, nursed the sick, found jobs for the unemployed, etc. Chaplain at the court of Henry IV of France. With Louise de Marillac, founded the Congregation of the Daughters of Charity. Instituted the Congregation of Priests of the Mission (Lazarists). Worked always for the poor, enslaved, abandoned, Ignored and pariahs. Born: 24 April 1581 near Ranquine, Gascony near Dax, southwest France the town is now known as Saint-Vincent-de-Paul, Landes, France Died: 27 September 1660 in Paris France of natural causes body found incorrupt when exhumed in 1712 body defleshed by a flood; skeleton encased in a wax effigy in the house of the Vincentian fathers in Paris heart incorrupt; displayed in a reliquary in the chapel of the motherhouse of the Sisters of Charity in Paris

Minute Meditation: God Loves Our Imperfections God, to me, is a mystery, but in my better moments, I feel fairly sure that God loves us in the way I am trying to love my kids. That is to say, I think God looks at us and sees the beauty of who we are, and that beauty is not a result of our being perfect. It's a result of our being a whole, unique mess—the good and the bad together. God delights in our discolored strands—at our wild imperfections. As a father myself, I am learning to do the same. —from St. Anthony Messenger's "Faith Unpacked: Embracing Our Imperfections" by David Dault, PhD

Pause and Pray: Longing for Connection Reflect: Children so often simply want to spend time with their parent or guardian, following them as they go about their day. They don't need another child-centered activity, or to be constantly entertained and distracted—they want to feel connection. The same goes for our relationship with God—so often we go from one spiritual activity to the next, wondering why we feel so disconnected from him. Maybe instead of another activity, our souls crave a quiet moment with the Lord. Pray: God, you are always with us, but we so often forget. Bring our attention back to you, so that we never forget your constant presence. May we be mindful so that we can be prayerful. Gently guide our thoughts to the sacred spaces, the places of spiritual illumination, so that we can meet you and praise you in the present. Let our guilt about the past and anxiety about the future slip away as we center ourselves in the now—that eternal access point to the holy. Amen. Act: Spend time this week in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.
